FEATURES

- 20 HOTSEAT: BAYLEY
In an era where title belts are often tossed around like so many hot potatoes, Bayley has worn the Smackdown Women's title for an entire year—truly earning her spot atop this year's "Women's 100." In this exclusive interview with Al Castle, she opens up about her friendship and rivalry with Sasha Banks, her evolving heel persona, and much more.
- 26 THE 2020 PWI/WOMEN'S 100
This may just be our most competitive women's ranking to date! While WWE stars round out the entire top five, the rest of the list is full of some of the sport's best athletes ... and biggest stars.
- 48 WOMEN'S 100 ALPHABETICAL LIST
From Trish Adora to Su Yung (and everyone in between).
- 49 A TESTAMENT TO WOMEN'S WRESTLING
One name sadly missing from this year's "Women's 100" is the late Hana Kimura. Kristen Ashly pays tribute to the joshi superstar who could have been.
- 52 NECESSARY MEANNESS!
In his two decades as an active wrestler, one thing Eric Young has never been is predictable. Harry Burkett speaks to the "World-Class Maniac" about his callous disregard for anyone who stands in his way.
- 56 TO CARE OR NOT TO CARE
Orange Cassidy is one of AEW's most popular stars. But could the traits that brought him to the dance become his undoing? Brady Hicks grills Cassidy and his "Best Friends" Chuck Taylor and Trent.
- 60 DOING IT FOR THE CULTURE
AJ Gray was the highest ranked indie wrestler in this year's "500" list. But who is AJ, and what does his recent success mean for the industry? New PWI contributor Righteous Reg investigates.
- 64 2020 ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS BALLOT
It's that time of year again: Let your voice be heard by casting your vote in our 10 classic categories ... along with a special new one.
